Pastor Speaks

Who of us is not maimed?

By Rex J. Bennett
Who Of Us Is Not Maimed?
John 21:15-21

In an old church prayer book, the following words are printed: "Who is not maimed: who has not been broken?" And the obvious suggestion is that not one of us can claim wholeness or perfection; or as the Bible reads elsewhere: ".....all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God."

Someone has called the experience in John 21 "the greening of the Apostle Peter", that disciple who knew that he had sinned, and that he was maimed and broken. Peter had denied our Lord three times; afterwhich he had witnessed the awful reality of Jesus' crucifixion death. And this experience in John 21 is the record of that conversation between the resurrected Christ and the fallen Simon Peter. Try to imagine how Simon Peter was feeling about himself at this moment in his life; but notice the manner in which our Lord dealt with him in his obvious sins and personal brokenness. "Simon," Jesus said: "Simon, do you love me?" ".....do you love Me? .....do you love Me?" And when our Lord had received answers to His questions, He said to Peter: "Feed my lambs.... my sheep...follow Me."

There are several things that come to me out of this experience of forgiveness and restoration that we would do well to remember in dealing with our sins and brokeness:

1. Just because you have sinned and you know it, it doesn't mean that you are more messed up than those disciples who never seem to fail or fall. After all, Simon Peter tried harder than the rest of those men; he stayed close while the others forsook Jesus and fled. No one of us can stay circumspectively clean; and if we try to stay close to Christ and seek ever to do His will, we will be made aware of our sins and failures.

2. Failure is the stuff out of which recreation and renewal is born. Isn't this really the promise of the Gospel - that when we know who we really are, it is then that the grace of God is at its best: forgiving, restoring, and directing.

3. When God heals us in Jesus Christ, we are commissioned to try and try again; it is always back to the task, as we ever seek to follow and keep on following Him. Simon Peter became to leader of that early Christian movement not in spite of his sins, but because of his sins.

Yes, we all have been maimed; we all have been broken; but thank God, His grace is available and He is forgiving and He is willing to use our lives in spite of ourselves!

NAACP to meet

The Appomattox Chapter of the NAACP will hold its monthly meeting at the Springfield Baptist Church March 15 at 7:30 p.m.

Interested persons are asked to attend this meeting.

Trio set to perform

The Lighthouse Trio will present a one-hour program of Christian music at 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, March 13 at the Yellow Branch Baptist Church on Route 29, south of Lynchburg.

The public is invited to attend.

Church opening changed

Due to an unfortunate oversight on the part of the Bishop, the dedication of our Lady of Peace Catholic Church has had to be changed to Sunday, March 21 at 11 a.m.

"We apologize for the inconvenience that this may cause anyone who was invited and may not now be able to attend," said a spokesman for the church. "We are holding Open House until 3 p.m. on the day of dedication and hope that many will be able to attend," the spokesman concluded.

The miracles of forgiveness

By William L. Trimyer
The Miracles of Healing and Forgiveness
Lesson for March 14,1982
Bible Study Passage: Mark 2:1-12
Introduction

Forgiveness is both a blessing and a miracle. This week's lesson brings into sharp focus the unique ability of Christ to respond to the total needs of persons. Christ was never guilty of offering bread for a person's stomach without also offering them bread for their souls.

When Christ encountered human brokenness, he performed the miracles of both healing and forgiveness. Jesus always left a person in a better shape than he found them.

We are journeying once again to the Easter event. Our lessons over the next few weeks will focus on the events surrounding the crucifixion of Christ. We will hopefully develop a more meaningful appreciation for why Christ's death means to us as Christians. We will see that the death of Jesus opened the way for believers to experience the miracle of forgiveness and acceptance before God.

At Home in the Home [Mark 2:1-2]

Jesus did not limit his proclamation or healing in churches or in the marketplace. There were numerous times when Jesus went to the home of a friend to teach or lay his hands on the sick.

It is reported that Jesus did not have his own piece of real estate. He held no deed to a home or parcel of land. It is likely that Jesus depended upon the hospitality of friends to meet his physical needs for food and rest.

Capernaum was sort of "home base" for Jesus' public ministry. In a certain home there Jesus preaches the good news of God's love. The scriptures describe a scene in which the house is filled with an overflow crowd, people peering through windows and straining to hear his teaching.

Borne of Four (Mark 2:3-5)

People often traveled great distances to find cures for their diseases. When you've got your health, you almost have everything. Most of us would be willing to travel around the world if we thought a cure existed for our ills.

Certain concerned friends brought a paralytic to Jesus for help. Their concern lead them to the top of the house where Jesus was preaching. There they let their paralyzed friend down through an opening in the roof. Jesus responded compassionately to their sense of faith and concern for their friend.

Jesus said to the man with the paralysis: "Son, thy sins be forgiven thee." The need for pardon is basic to all humans. Jesus was obviously moved by the compassion these four friends showed for the paralytic.

The Accusation of Blasphemy [Mark 2:6-9]

The actions and teachings of Jesus were always under the close eye of religious leaders. When Jesus healed the paralytic and pardoned his sins, the scribes murmured to themselves, "How can he get away with that? Only God can forgive sins."

They were right about one thing, namely, only God can forgive sins. But they were blind to the fact that forgiveness was made possible through his Son.

Jesus' response was to reveal his authoratative power to both forgive and to heal. Indeed, to be forgiven is to be healed. Forgiveness frees us to fulfill our God-given abilities and gifts.

Power to Heal and Forgive [Mark 2:10-12]

Jesus did not rely upon ESP to communicate with people God's love and care. He relied upon his mantle of authority as God's Son. As an evidence of his authority, he enabled a cripple to walk again.

The healing of the paralytic was a natural outcome of the pronouncement of forgiveness of the man and his sins.

The picture of four friends loweing a paralytic down through the roof is a dramatic display of care. The church can take heed of such an action, for when people band together to serve suffering humanity, we see the church at its best.

If we will join efforts with God, we will witness his blessing in many instances. Then we may exclaim with great joy, "We have never seen anything like this!"

Church slates activities

"Together we can change things," says the Rev. Robert L. Williams, Pastor of New Hope Baptist Church located on highway 24 east of Appomattox.

"New Hope wants you to know of her desire to be of help to you, and you of help to us," commented Rev. Williams. "The church is the body of Christ (Eph. 4:15) for which He died on the cross (Eph. 5:25). We, at New Hope, want you to know of the love of God in Jesus Christ (John 3:16) and the peace you can have through FAITHFUL service and fellowship in His Kingdom's work (Matt. 25:21). For these reasons we invite you to be a part of our activities scheduled at New Hope within the next few weeks," he added.

March 14 is Youth Sunday at New Hope Baptist Church with youth accepting places of responsibility in the Sunday School from 10:00 until 11:00 a.m. and the morning worship service from 11:00 until 12:00 a.m.

On Sunday evening at 7:30 the Liberty Baptist Church Youth Choir will be in charge of the worship service.

"We are looking forward to a full day of fellowship in the Lord with our youth. We invite you to come and be a part of this time together," said Rev. Williams.

March 21 is High Attendance Day in Sunday School for the 1st quarter of 1982. A goal of 275 has been set and "we are prayerful that you will help us meet this goal," said Williams.

"Our only interest in setting goals is that it represents people exposing themselves to the BENEFITS that only worship and study of God can provide," added Williams.

Dr. Frank Means will teach the book of Jeremiah on Sunday night, March 21, Monday night, March 22, and Wednesday night, March 24 from 7:30 until 8:15. Plan now to take advantage of this opportunity to participate in the study of God's word.

"Many problems we experience in life are a direct result of our unfaithfulness to God in His house of worship. Our ABILITY to cope with satan's attacks and temptations are in direct proportion to our faithfulness in the things of God....prayer. Bible Study, worship, and witness. How much heartache would be prevented if people would accept this truth and live upon it (II Cor. 4:4). Please let us help you as you help us at New Hope. We look forward to seeing you this Sunday," concluded Williams.
